

The Emergence of the World Teacher

SHARE INTERNATIONAL — A RETROSPECTIVE

Since its inception in January 1982, Share International magazine has documented all the major steps leading to the emergence of Maitreya, the World Teacher. Here we take a look back at recent years to show how events are speeding up. So much has happened: the extraordinary miracles including Maitreya's 'star' seen worldwide; Maitreya's television interviews beginning His open emergence; ever-increasing sightings of UFOs, accompanied by an abundance of crop circles; and, at the same time, the long-awaited awakening of humanity and the unstoppable rise of people power. We include a selection of highlights from the magazine connected to the advent of Maitreya.

The awakening of humanity

The peace demonstrations in 2003 brought 12.5 million people all over the world to march against the war in Iraq, many protesting for the first time.

In the decade that has followed, the people's voice has gained in strength and numbers — from the 'Arab Spring' and the 'Occupy' movement in 2011 to global climate marches and peace marches and many more. Maitreya Himself has been seen in various guises at many such marches and rallies.

Benjamin Creme's Master frequently refers to this growing desire for change, particularly among the young. "The Voice of the People, so vigorous and confident now, must continue to ring out through all the world.... To a large extent, today, the People's Voice is the voice of the young. Governments, and the media under their control, largely ignore or vilify the voices and aspirations of the young; yet it is the young who have the answers, who understand that humanity is One, who call for fairness, for justice and sharing, and an end to war. The voice of such young people can never be silenced, and will not for long be ignored." (SI April 2012)

Signs in abundance

Benjamin Creme's Master revealed in His April 2006 Share International article that "Whenever people are unsure whether to go forward or back, to the left or the right, they look for signs: The signs that would guide them are there in abundance but men soon forget the wonders which have been lavished on them for many years." He continued: "The time is soon coming when men will remember the signs and accept them as true portents of the days to come. They will understand them as a planned manifestation synchronized with the emergence of Maitreya and His group of Masters at this unique time in the history of the world...." The Master wrote in another article (SI March 2012): "...there will appear a series of signs which will mystify those who experience them. No one will be able to explain this phenomenon but it will presage a change in the thinking and understanding of men. From that time onwards, a sense of expectancy will grip most nations, which will prepare men for the extraordinary events that are to come..."

The Gathering of the Forces of Light

Since 2007 there has been a dramatic rise in UFO sightings around the world, including multiple groupings of spacecraft. Benjamin Creme's book, The Gathering of the Forces of Light – UFOs and their Spiritual Mission, includes unique information about the Space Brothers and their real mission on Earth – to help humanity through our world crisis. Many UFO sightings, as well as crop circles, have been reported by media and the public. YouTube videos, photographs, testimonials, and previously classified UFO documents now released, add up to a large body of evidence that UFOs are real. In the last 12 years, Share International has published an increasing number of photographs of confirmed spacecraft. Benjamin Creme has stated that the Space Brothers will work more and more openly as we move closer to the Day of Declaration—Maitreya's open declaration before the world.

More Messages from Maitreya, the World Teacher

During the years 2000-2016 Share International published additional Messages from Maitreya, the World Teacher. Received by mental telepathy through Benjamin Creme during a Blessing from Maitreya, they are inspiring messages of hope and encouragement. We include a selection.

A Message from Maitreya, 6 April 2006

My friends, I am nearer to you than you may think. My heart beats step by step with yours. My heart cries for the suffering of so many. Yet I know that the hearts of those who hear Me now are open and willing to help. Fear not My friends. Give bravely and willingly to help all in need. When you do this you enter that area of divinity from which you come. This is the action of divinity itself. So My friends, wait no longer for the manifestation of the great changes which are to come. Bring them about by your actions. Think widely. Think that your brothers and sisters are yourselves, the same throughout the world. Do this My friends and see Me very soon. My heart embraces you all.

(SI May 2006. Received at the end of Benjamin Creme's interview on Radio Ici & Maintenant, Paris, France.)

A Message from Maitreya, 27 September 2007

My dear friends, I am close to you now. Many of you have awaited My presence for a long time. I am about to step forward openly before all men, and to begin my outer mission.

There is no distance between us. Know this. Understand this*. When you ask Me through the 'hand' or directly to Me for help, that help, you should know, is assured. It is possible that you will not recognize that the help has been given, but so it will be. Trust Me to aid you, for it is to do so that I come. I shall exhort you to work with Me for the good of all. This is the opportunity to grow quicker, faster than you have ever done before, and so bring you to the Feet of That One Whom we call God.

Be not afraid of the many problems which arise now almost daily in the world. These events are transient and soon men will come to understand that they have before them a future bathed in light. So will it be.

(SI Nov 2007. Received at Mr Creme's interview for a TV documentary in Amsterdam.)

A Message from Maitreya, 26 October 2008

My friends, listen carefully for I bring hope to you all for an end to your troubles, for a new life for all those ready to accept the need for justice and peace. [The lack of] these two, justice and peace, is the major obstacle in your path today. The way to justice and peace is easily solved. It requires only the acceptance of sharing. Share and know the future. Refuse to share and there will be no future for man. Simple is life when seen with the knowing eye. Learn, My friends, to live simply and to love one another truly. My friends, believe it to be true for so it is, that you shall see Me sooner than you can imagine. I am even now at the door, ready to step forward and to begin My more open Mission. Be hopeful and of good cheer, My friends, for all will be well. All manner of things will be well.

(SI Dec 2008. Received while Benjamin Creme was filmed for Slovenian television in Munich, Germany.)

A Message from Maitreya, 26 March 2010

Give Me the opportunity to help you; that is why I have come. If you accept Me I will lead you into your destiny; that which has been destined from the beginning of this world. All depends on you: you have to take the steps which make this possible. We have to see ourselves as One, brothers and sisters, and work together for the good of all. We are not separate, despite appearances, we are one group of which I am part, and for whom I work every moment of My Life. I would have you know that at this moment My Blessing is upon you. Accept My Blessing, and live simply and with love. These qualities are close to My Heart.

(SI May 2010. Received during an interview with Benjamin Creme in Paris, France.)

A Message from Maitreya, 31 March 2016

These days are difficult for many. Even the best and the closest feel the pains of doubt and reservation. But when I say that I engage with you as one of you before the world, it is the truth.

Likewise when I say that the time is close indeed when all men will recognize My face and respond, it is the truth.

Only the Law bids Me wait a very little time, but within the Law I am verily with you daily, in constant rapport with your needs and the opportunities presented to Myself by you. Soon humanity as a whole will awaken to My presence and will accept with all willingness the transformation of this, our world.

Remember that we are at the beginning and the end of a civilization, an epic period in the history of the world, and understand thereby that men feel the pain of change. For some it is a release into freedom.

40 years' work — preparing for Maitreya and His group of Masters

Benjamin Creme answers questions

For others it is a loss of surety and calm.

But, My brothers, pain will be short-lived, and already many know this to be so. There is aid in abundance to help you through these difficult times. Accept eagerly this Age and recognize the signs of the new.

Verily, verily, I am with you. Verily, I am among you in many ways. Judge for yourselves, My brothers, how close you are to My expectations of a new world. This will be a world in which all men are one, in which all men fulfil the joy of creation, and fulfil with love their capacity to show the way to their brothers in simplicity and truth. (SI May 2016. Received for SI Magazine.)

*The 'hand' of Maitreya

Maitreya miraculously manifested His 'handprint' on a bathroom mirror in Barcelona, Spain, in September 2001. It is a means of invoking the healing energies and help of Maitreya, who says: "My help is yours to command, you have only to ask."

Benjamin Creme dedicated the last 40 years of his life to preparing the world for the most extraordinary event in human history – the return to the everyday world of our spiritual mentors, the Spiritual Hierarchy of Masters, with Maitreya, the World Teacher, at Their head.

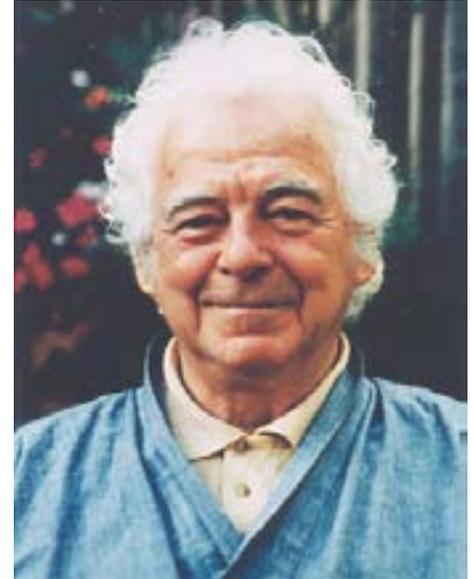

In March 1974 Benjamin Creme formed the first Transmission Meditation group in London, and in May 1975 he gave his first public lecture in London. In subsequent decades, he travelled the world continuously giving hundreds of lectures, radio and television interviews and authoring 16 books until his passing in October 2016 at the age of 93.

He was the founding editor of Share International magazine, launched in 1982; it is circulated in over 70 countries.

He brought hope to the millions who have heard and been touched by the news of the imminent emergence of the World Teacher, and the consequent transformation of the world by the creation of justice and peace through sharing.

Q. You have been doing this work now for 40 years. How have you kept going all that time?
BC. You keep going by not counting the years; if you know it's going to be 40 years of course you might not keep going, but the years pass and then you get to know it's 20 years, 30 years, 40 years. So you take it one day at a time and you lose count of time. Essentially time does not enter into it. You don't think of it in terms of time. You just do the work. It is like painting a picture; you just do the work without counting the time.

When I began this work I asked the Master how long it would take for Maitreya and the Masters to be out in the public domain; He said about nine years, and then in a short time, it was eight years, which took us to 1982. In the beginning Maitreya's hopes were that 1982 would be the year in which He could come out and speak to the world as Maitreya. It was a hope, a possibility, if the media responded to what I had to say. Unfortunately the media did not respond, so in the end Maitreya had to take the long slow route to His emergence.

Benjamin Creme

Now I believe that there is very little time left for us to do the work of preparing the world for the day of Day of Declaration.

Q. How can you sustain your faith, that what you are saying is correct, is actually happening?

BC. I suppose it is precisely faith that does sustain one, but you have to understand what faith is. Faith is not just a blind belief. True faith is from our soul experience and, if you have that soul experience you automatically have faith. You don't need more faith, added faith to keep you going. You simply work from a position of faith: a total belief in the truth of one's experience, in Maitreya's offer of a part to play in His emergence, and the continued connection, moment-to-moment, with one of the Masters of Wisdom. With all of that, how could you lose faith? The Master said to me many, many years ago, before I had given the first public lecture: "For want of this one quality, many promising disciples have failed. Have faith and affirm His coming." As I say, this is not, of course, blind faith, but faith in the validity of one's own experience. Once one has this, it cannot be lost. And you have faith. What you then need is courage to take this out and tell the world. It took several strong pushes from my Master to get me to do this.

I have a total, absolute belief in the validity of what I am saying. Naturally, of course, at lectures I present it as a hypothesis for people to consider, but for myself I believe what I have been told by Maitreya and my Master. I know these things to be real, and I have never lost sight of that.

From the coming out of Maitreya in 1977 there was a great body of predictions given by Maitreya which one by one became facts, like the ending of the Cold War, the unification of Germany, the breakup of the Soviet Union, the release of Nelson Mandela, and until 9/11 everything became brighter and surer for the time ahead.

The US government was told before 9/11 through the diplomatic service that there would be an attack on America involving important buildings, including the White House and the Pentagon, and that it was important that the Americans did not start a knee-jerk reaction against terrorist culprits. Unfortunately America and the British started a war against terrorism which continues to the present time and which is responsible for much of the difficulties facing the world today.

Q. In the present climate, therefore, how will people respond when they see Maitreya?

BC. Many will respond when they see and hear Maitreya, above all on the Day of Declaration itself, when He overshadows and makes His historic statement to the world in the language of each and everyone. But not all will respond. Many people will believe this is the antichrist, but there is a huge misunderstanding about the antichrist. The antichrist is actually a destructive energy, the First Ray of Will in its destructive phase, which is deliberately released to break down the old backward and useless civilizations to prepare the way for the Christ principle.

Maitreya said: “Many will follow Me and see Me as their Guide. Many will know Me not.” Many are not looking for a new teacher. They don’t believe in such things. Many have left the churches. They have no basis for learning what is happening in the world. But now, all over the world, our groups are telling people about the reality of the Christ’s presence and the return of the Masters of Hierarchy to the world, and this is rejuvenating the world; it gives people courage and hope – above all it gives them hope. Before I started this work the Master used to say to me: “Tell the world – tell them what you know and raise their hope, keep alert the hope and spirit of the world”. And I thought, he must not be talking seriously – to expect me – little me – alone to uphold the hope and spirit of millions of people in the world – it’s not one man’s task! He said, no, He never expected it was one man’s task but He was just giving me the direction in which I should work. But I have worked with a worldwide group of dedicated souls who have taken up this task and continue to do so.

There are still billions in the world who do not know what we know, but anyone can join the work of preparation just by talking about it and making it known that Maitreya and His group are in the world. Millions already believe what I am saying about Maitreya and the Masters and wait expectantly for the proof.

Q. How many people have heard your story?

BC. My Master says about 36 million people have heard it. Of these a third, about 12 to 13 million, believe it, accept it as true; a third do not know but keep an open mind; and a third reject it entirely.

So much has happened in the last decade, obviously some negative events but also very positive ones. In terms of ‘people power’ we have had, for example, the ‘Arab Spring’, the ‘Occupy’ and related movements. We have had the appearance of Maitreya’s ‘star’ in 2008 that heralded His more public appearances and, since 2010, He has been appearing, incognito, on television in various countries around the world.

Q. Can you comment on the changes in consciousness of people in these last few years?

BC. The changes on the physical plane are a result of a change in consciousness over the last 10 years. People everywhere are waking up and are beginning to demand their rights – to food, to education, to healthcare, and to freedom and justice. This powerful energy of awakening cannot be stopped. It has behind it the inspiration towards unity of the energies of Aquarius. Obviously, change on a global scale will not happen overnight, nor is revolution the answer. It is evolution based on a new sanity, oneness and inter-relatedness, which will take humanity into correct relationship.

Q. You said recently that the Age of Aquarius has now actually begun, since 2009. Can you please elaborate on what that means for the world?

BC. We are now five years into the age of Aquarius, which seen from the astronomical point of view is almost no time at all. Since 1675 the energies of Aquarius have gradually been making an impact on our lives. Now they are bringing more and more young people into incarnation who are essentially Aquarian in their disposition and energetic make-up.

However, we are in a time in which all the structures – political, economic, religious, cultural, educational, etc – are still dominated by Piscean energy, and the world is led by people who hold them dear. The terrible and dangerous gulf between the poor and the rich, for example, threatens the very existence of this world. So there is still much to do, but the ordinary people of the world are waking up to their responsibilities and their power. Moreover, Maitreya has assured us that: “All will be well, all manner of things will be well.”

Q. How do you know that Humanity will respond to Maitreya’s call?

BC. In the early 1930s, in the Agni Yoga book The Call, Maitreya Himself said: “There was a time when 10 true men could save the world. Then came a time when 10,000 was not enough. I shall call on one billion.” Around the year 2000, I asked my Master: “Has Maitreya got His billion people yet?” He said 1.5 billion... Now in 2012, the number is nearer 1.8 billion. These form the Forces of Light. Maitreya will call on all those whom He knows beforehand will respond to Him and will teach others to respond. It does not take the whole of humanity to respond to Maitreya but a certain proportion, a critical mass.
